

South Bank Freelancing Support Programme Challenges Drawing - Terms and Conditions

By completing and submitting the six practical freelancer Challenges (Challenges) as part of the London South Bank University (LSBU) South Bank Freelancing Support Programme (Programme), you agree to the following terms and conditions and will be automatically entered into the prize draw for a 1-to-1 mentoring session with a business advisor from the Small Business Research + Enterprise Centre (SBREC), City of London.

- The mentoring opportunity is a 45-minute/1-hour 1-to-1 mentoring session with a business advisor from SBREC. The mentoring session is non-transferable and cannot be exchanged for cash or any other form of compensation.
- The prize draw is open to LSBU entrepreneurs who have participated in the Programme from October 2026 to November 2026 and completed the required Programme Challenges by the specified deadline.
- One entry per eligible entrepreneur. Participants do not need to submit a separate entry form. Completion of the required Challenges by the deadline will automatically result in entry into the prize draw.
- All eligible entrepreneurs who complete and submit the required Challenges to starters@lsbu.ac.uk by 30 November 2026 at 12:00 p.m. will be entered into the prize draw.
- Five winners will be selected at random from all eligible entries using a random number generator on 1 December 2026.
- Each winner will receive one 45-minute/1-hour 1-to-1 mentoring session with an SBREC business advisor. The session will be arranged directly with the winner and will be subject to the advisor's availability.
- The mentoring session is intended to provide general business guidance and support relevant to the winner's freelance activity or business. It does not constitute legal, financial, or other professional advice.
- Winners will be notified by email and must respond within 7 days of being notified. If a winner does not respond within this period, the organiser reserves the right to select an alternative winner at random.
- The organiser reserves the right to verify that selected winners meet the eligibility requirements and have completed the required Challenges before confirming the mentoring opportunity.
- The organiser reserves the right to cancel or amend the prize draw and these terms and conditions where necessary.
- The organiser's decision in all matters relating to the prize draw is final.
